

Hi kids!

Hope you're keeping warm! As you'll know, it's Mother's Day this Sunday. And this week, my dog Rosa became a mother herself! Not to a puppy, but to a starving kitten that my Mum found abandoned at the recycling station. We named her Kiki. Rosa wouldn't stop following Kiki around when she first arrived, and kept licking her until she was clean. She even let Kiki sleep on her favourite blanket. Which goes to show that families, and motherly love, can come in all shapes and sizes, and even species combinations!

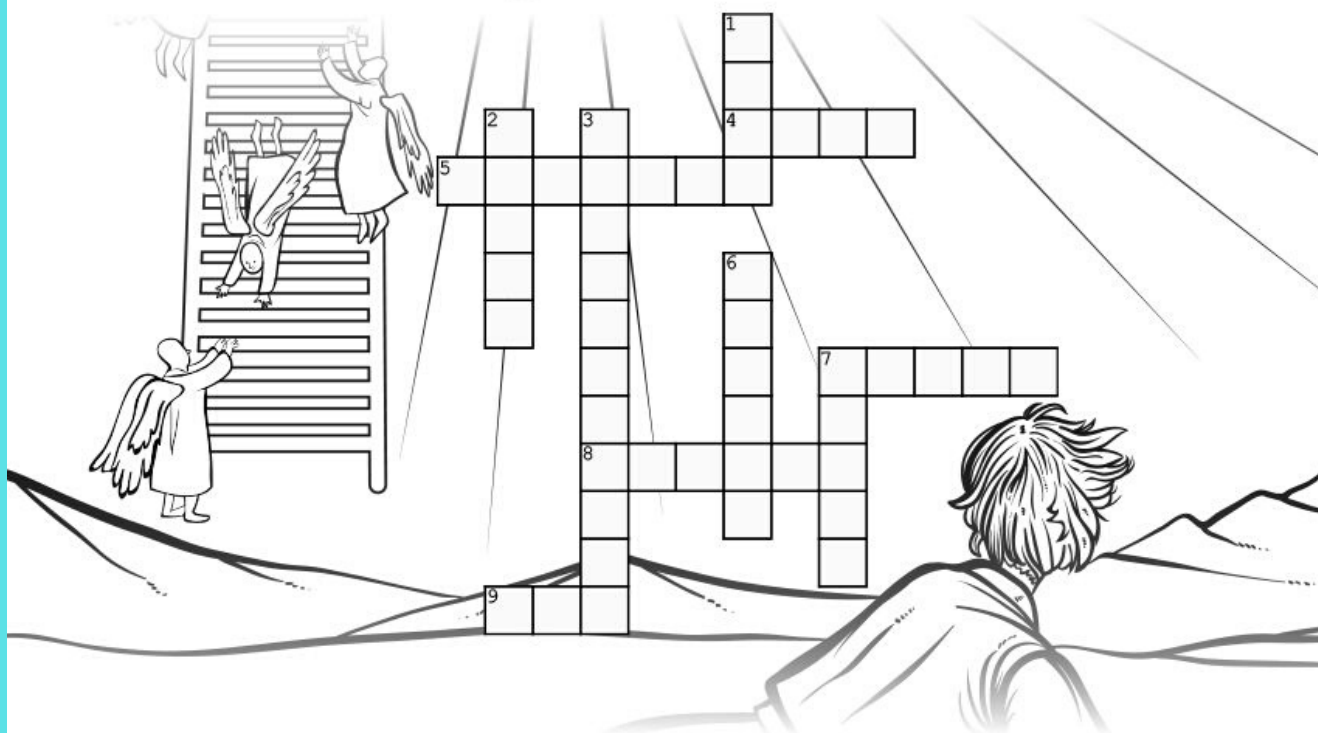

At Church This Week

Go to your Bible, and find John 14: 1-14. It will give you the clues to this puzzle!
